Jonathan M. Robinson Invited to Join the American Board of Trial Advocates

Robinson becomes member of national invitation-only association of experienced trial lawyers and judges

COLUMBIA, S.C., April 27, 2020 – Smith Robinson Holler DuBose and Morgan, LLC, is pleased to announce that attorney Jonathan M. Robinson has recently been invited to become a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA). Founded in 1958, membership to this national association of experienced trial lawyers and judges is by invitation-only. Its members are dedicated to the preservation and promotion of the civil jury trial right provided by the Seventh Amendment.

“It comes as no surprise to me that Jon was selected to join this prestigious organization,” says G. Murrell Smith, Jr., co-founding partner of Smith Robinson. “When it comes to the practice of law, Jon is the epitome of professionalism and integrity. I can think of no one more deserving of this recognition.”

Members of ABOTA must have at least five years of active experience as a trial lawyer, have tried at least 10 civil jury trials to conclusion, and possess additional litigation experience. Members must also exhibit the virtues of civility, integrity and professionalism.

About Smith Robinson

SMITH | ROBINSON formed from the merger of two South Carolina law firms rich in history and public service. Predecessor firm Lee, Erter, Wilson, Holler, and Smith, LLC, traces roots back more than 150 years in Sumter. The other predecessor firm, DuBose Robinson Morgan, PC, evolved from its founding nearly 40 years ago in Camden. With 13 attorneys and offices in Columbia, Sumter, and Camden, SMITH | ROBINSON combines the experience and successes of its predecessor firms and broadens its capabilities to serve the needs of its clients.
