David C. Holler elected to the Executive Council of the Association of Defense Trial Attorneys for the Class of 2022

COLUMBIA, S.C., May 11, 2020 – Smith Robinson Holler DuBose and Morgan, LLC, is pleased to announce that attorney David C. Holler has recently been elected to the Executive Council of the Association of Defense Trial Attorneys (ADTA) for the Class of 2022. The ADTA identifies proven, successful defense trial attorneys across the nation and provides opportunities for these attorneys to grow and connect professionally.

Mr. Holler is a partner with Smith Robinson law firm, practicing in the Firm's Sumter office. He focuses his practice in medical malpractice defense, civil litigation, insurance defense, and other areas of defense litigation. He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from Duke University in 1985 and his Juris Doctor from the University of South Carolina School of Law in 1991. He is an active member of his community and is a member of the Defense Research Institute, the South Carolina Defense Trial Attorneys' Association, and the Association of Defense Trial Attorneys.

About Smith Robinson

SMITH | ROBINSON formed from the merger of two South Carolina law firms rich in history and public service. Predecessor firm Lee, Erter, Wilson, Holler, and Smith, LLC, traces roots back more than 150 years in Sumter. The other predecessor firm, DuBose Robinson Morgan, PC, evolved from its founding nearly 40 years ago in Camden. With 13 attorneys and offices in Columbia, Sumter, and Camden, SMITH | ROBINSON combines the experience and successes of its predecessor firms and broadens its capabilities to serve the needs of its clients.
